

Symbols of Tradition and Order

Origin:

This symbol was created specifically as the emblem of a particular organization.

Uses:

It is only used as the emblem of Tradition and Order, a Ukrainian right-wing radical group.

Use as a hate symbol:

The emblem does not contain any previously established hate symbols. However, because it is used exclusively by the radical right-wing group Tradition and Order, the emblem itself can be considered a hate symbol.

A mace and a hand appear separately in a variety of images and emblems, however, when used together, they can be considered a hate symbol.

This symbol is only used deliberately, never by accident.

Additional images

Variant

Logo of the "Conservative" magazine published by Tradition and Order